

Ann MCINTYRE

WWW.STETSONASSOCIATES.COM

14343-G TORREY CHASE BLVD

281.440.4220

HOUSTON

TX 77014

EDUCATION

M.A. Speech Language Pathology
Louisiana State University

B.A. Speech Language Pathology
Louisiana State University

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2013 – present
Consultant

Stetson and Associates, Inc. | Houston, TX

- Provide consulting services and training for school districts on inclusive practices, best practices for differentiated instruction, and professional collaboration.
- Provide technical assistance at the campus level for effective implementation of inclusive practices.

2012 – 2013
Professional Development Consultant
Footsteps2Brilliance, Inc.

- Provided subject matter expertise for program content
- Conducted professional development sessions for program subscribers

2008 – 2012
Executive Director, Hawaii Implementation
Achieve3000, Inc.

- Directed a statewide launch and multi-year implementation of a web delivered differentiated literacy program for K-12.
- Developed collaborative partnerships with State Department of Education leadership, complex area superintendents, and principals to drive successful implementation through continued campus level support.
- Managed and mentored a statewide team of training professionals delivering training and technical assistance to administrators and teachers.
- Recipient of the 2009 Leadership Award in recognition of exceptional leadership to ensure the success of the Achieve3000 implementation in Hawaii schools.

2007 - 2008

National Implementation Strategist, Hawaii Implementation
Achieve3000, Inc.

- Led implementation planning and execution for key accounts nationwide
- Guided field personnel to drive successful implementation in targeted accounts
- Influenced new sales and renewals in collaboration with sales team through executive level presentations
- Participated as a member of the new employee certification board providing coaching for certification.
- Co-managed product development for professional development materials

1990 - 2007

President
AM2, Inc.

The professional development firm, AM2, Inc., provided consulting services to educational software publishers, online course developers, and school districts nationwide. Services included:

- Subject matter expertise for course development and test development
- Instructional design incorporating adult learning principles
- Development and management of professional development training teams for educational publishers.
- Development of train the trainer programs and training materials for workshops and seminars.
- Presentation of training sessions, seminars and provision of ongoing technical assistance for successful implementation of educational programs and products.

1982 - 1990

Educational Consultant
Region IV Education Service Center

- Provided leadership to educators across a seven county region (55 school districts) regarding delivery of quality educational services regarding early education, language and literacy, and curriculum and instruction. Initiated the first continuing education program delivered through an ESC for speech language pathologists, led the initiative to identify and train an assistive technology team for each school district in the region and established the first Assistive Technology Resource Center in the state including purchase of all hardware, software, and support services.
- Developed scripts and presented professional development via Interactive Television
- Conducted training in the Texas Teacher Appraisal System and in the Leadership Series for District and School Administrators.
- Provided leadership in the development and management of the Interagency Information and Referral System for the Houston Metropolitan area under the umbrella of the United Way.

1974 - 1982

Director of Speech Pathology Services and Early Childhood Education
Cypress-Fairbanks Independent School District

- Provided speech language services in elementary, middle and high schools (3 years) before becoming Director of Speech Pathology Services and Early Childhood Education. (6 years)