

DATE:

Small-Group Positive Behavior Checklist

A Pre-Assessment Analysis of Group Participation

Criteria	Students
Contributes, participates in group activities, research, and problem solving.
Asks for assistance from group members when facing a difficult task, or has questions.
Able to evaluate own task, contribution, or work product.
Works cooperatively with other students, takes suggestions positively.
Is able to stay task committed for an extended period of time or while group is working.
Completes independent work, task, or contributions as required by group assignment.
Stays on task or topic and asks appropriate questions.
Utilizes small group learning by sharing with whole group or class.
Self-initiates participation role within group and assumes responsibility for assigned tasks.
Is easily redirected by the small group leader when appropriate.							